

Reign of Retards

Political elite they are called
Elected by the people
But it's not the truth that's told
Because their minds are feeble
Elected by the people

Populists and authoritarians alike
Dividing nations all over the world
The dumb and blind how could they strike
Believe in the absurdities hurled

So, try it yourself and shoot you up
All of the goddam retards
Come together and raise the cup
A farewell to that house of cards

Reign of retards
Knowledge is dead
Reign of retards
No science to dread

Fuck you Retards
Go you Motherfuckers (and) die
Fuck you, Bastards
Die

The tin foil hats get more and more
The earth is flat, you didn't know?
As long as we don't swallow their gore
Their numbers will not grow

Fuck you
Fucking Retards
(We) hate you
We are through with you

The tin foil hats get more and more
The earth is flat, you didn't know?
As long as we don't swallow their gore
Their numbers will not grow

Reign of retards
Knowledge is dead
Reign of retards
No science to dread

But still, we need to stay alert
At what happens in society
Don't let you fool, don't get hurt
Don't give in to anxiety

Their world would look so vile
If they lead into another age
Comply with them or seek exile
Politics guided by instinct and rage

Reign of retards
Knowledge is dead
Reign of retards
No science to dread
